

(Information) Undergraduate Student Exchange Programs for 2022 Academic Year

Hokkaido University Hospital decided to suspend the undergraduate student exchange programs until September 2022. This suspension includes accepting students from partner universities and non-partner universities. We apologize for any inconvenience that may have been caused by this circumstance. We will update the student exchange information considering the situation taking place in Japan.